GARRISON CONFECTIONS Chocolatier Andrew Shotts's creations impress both the palate and the eye. As Val, one of the panelists, said: "It's more than candy—it's art." Thomas was more enamored of the taste, writing, "Who knew it was possible for chocolate to be both bold and delicate at the same time?" For Valentine's Day, Shotts makes a limited collection called Legendary Lovers. With chocolates named after star-crossed lovers like Roman mythology's Dido and Aeneas (strawberry basil and raspberry verbena), the collection is bound to get you in the mood.
